JURISDICTION AND VENUE

22. This is an action for patent infringement arising under the patent laws of the United States, Title 35 of the United States Code. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a). Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and 1400(b).

23. Defendants directly or through intermediaries, make, use, distribute, offer for sale or license, and advertise their products and services on the Internet using methods and instrumentalities that infringe the patents-in-suit, as is alleged below. Defendants use, and/or direct, induce or instruct their agents, employees, customers, or contracting entities to use such infringing methods and instrumentalities, as is alleged below. On information and belief, defendants conduct business in this Judicial District and have committed acts of patent infringement in this Judicial District including, inter alia, importing, making, using, offering for sale, and/or selling products and services on the Internet using infringing methods and instrumentalities in this Judicial District. On information and belief, defendants have contributed to infringement and/or have induced others to commit such acts of infringement in this Judicial District.

24. On information and belief, defendants have ongoing and systematic contacts with this Judicial District and the United States. Defendants have purposefully placed and/or used infringing methods and instrumentalities on the Internet to sell products and/or services, knowing and expecting that such products and/or services would be used and/or sold on the Internet through infringing methods and instrumentalities by customers in the State of Oregon.

COUNT I – INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,128,617

25. Select Retrieval repeats and re-alleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 24 as if fully set forth herein.

26. On October 3, 2000, United States Patent No. 6,128,617 (hereinafter referred to as the “‘617 Patent”), entitled DATA DISPLAY SOFTWARE WITH ACTIONS AND LINKS INTEGRATED WITH INFORMATION, was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. A true and correct copy of the ‘617 Patent is attached as Exhibit A to this Complaint.

27. Select Retrieval is the assignee and owner of the right, title, and interest in and to the ‘617 Patent, including the right to assert all causes of action arising under said patent and the right to any remedies for infringement of it.

28. Without license or authorization, defendants are and have been directly and indirectly infringing the ‘617 Patent, and contributing to and actively inducing the infringement of said patent by others, in the United States by making, using, selling, offering for sale or license, advertising and/or importing in the United States, including within this judicial district, their products and services on the Internet using methods and instrumentalities that embody the inventions claimed in the ‘617 Patent. Such acts constitute infringement under at least 35 U.S.C. §§ 271(a), (b), and (c).

29. With the exceptions of Adidas AG, Amazon.com, Inc., Costco Wholesale Corporation, drugstore.com, Inc., Musician’s Friend, Inc., Nordstrom, Inc., Sierra Trading Post Inc., and T-Mobile USA, Inc., defendants have had knowledge of and/or been aware of the ‘617 Patent since at least August 29, 2011, when, in a letter sent via first class mail, Select Retrieval informed Adidas America, Inc., Harry and David Holdings, Inc., Motorcycle Superstore, Inc.,

Oakley, Inc., Gerler and Son, Inc., and Huppin's Hi-Fi Photo & Video, Inc. of their infringement of the '617 Patent and requested that defendants license the '617 Patent to mitigate their continued infringement. Defendants Altrec, Inc., Bag Borrow or Steal, Inc., Evolucion Innovations, Inc., iStores, Inc., and Sur La Table, Inc. have had knowledge of and/or been aware of the '617 Patent since at least August 19, 2011, when, in a letter sent via first class mail, Select Retrieval informed those defendants of their infringement of the '617 Patent and requested that they license the '617 Patent in order to mitigate their continued infringement.

30. On information and belief, defendants' infringement of the '617 Patent has been and continues to be willful and deliberate.

31. Select Retrieval has been damaged by defendants' infringing activities.

JURY DEMAND

32. Pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Select Retrieval demands a trial by jury on all issues triable as such.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

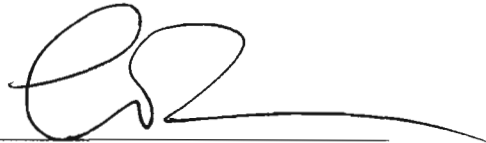

WHEREFORE, Select Retrieval respectfully demands judgment for itself and against defendants as follows:

- a. That this Court adjudge that defendants have infringed the '617 Patent;
- b. That this Court ascertain and award Select Retrieval damages sufficient to compensate it for the above infringement, and that the damages so ascertained be awarded to Select Retrieval with interest;
- c. That this Court find this case to be exceptional and award Select Retrieval its attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses in this action;

d. That this Court order an accounting of all infringing sales including, but not limited to, those sales not presented at trial, and award Select Retrieval damages for any such sales; and

e. That this Court award Select Retrieval such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Lloyd L. Pollard, II, OSB 07490
